10 Injured As Train Derailed By Accident

LODI, Ohio — The Baltimore & Ohio's 15-car Capitol Limited, bound for Chicago from Washington at a 75-mile an hour clip, was derailed early today when it was rammed by a tractor-trailer loaded with coal at a crossing near here.

The truck driver, a passenger, and 10 persons aboard the train were injured. Seven of the 200 train passengers were treated at the scene while three others were treated at Lodi Hospital and released.

JAMES BURT, 21, LaGrange, Ohio, driver of the coal truck, was admitted to Lodi Hospital with possible internal injuries and severe head injuries. He was listed in serious condition.

Among the passengers was Fran Allison, of the Kukla, Fran and Ollie TV puppet show. She was due to appear on the breakfast show in Chicago this morning.

THE IMPACT OF the derailment tore up a half mile of tracks as the cars jack-knifed to the side of the line. A length of steel rail was driven up through one of the 11 pullman cars, missing a sleeping passenger by a foot.

Power Company Reports Damage Heavy in County

Officials of California Electric Power company today said that the current storm, although causing a large amount of damage in parts of Riverside County, has done no damage in the desert area.

Outside the desert region, heavy rains and high winds have caused eucalyptus trees to be uprooted, taking out power lines in the Corona area. Power line trouble also has been great in the Hemet and Elsinore areas, according to Cal Electric's spokesman.

War Hero Promotes Memorial Stadium

Capt. Gene B. Fluckey, war-time commander of one of the Navy's deadliest submarines, today sought resort area participation in construction of the Navy-Marine Memorial Stadium at Annapolis, Md.

Fluckey, now visiting his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Gould, of Cathedral City, is campaign director for the memorial and recently ended a West Coast fund raising tour.

THE STADIUM, he said, is dedicated "to all who have served and who are serving in the United States Navy and Marine Corps, enlisted men and officer, reserves or regular."

It is the only single memorial ever designed for the Navy and Marine Corps, Fluckey said.

Located at the United States Naval Academy, the memorial stadium will be a valuable assistance in instilling a sense of dedication and tradition in Naval cadets, Fluckey asserted.

"THIS IS MUCH more than just a football field," said Fluckey, holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor and four-time winner of the Navy Cross. Containing a modest 30,000 seats, the stadium facade will be adorned with memorial plaques. Flags of all states will fly from its highest points, instead of college banners; and the American flag will rise highest of all, atop the "Enterprise Tower."

CAPT. GENE FLUCKEY give us a hand on the $600,000 still needed.

INTERNAL FACINGS of the stadium will be emblazoned with the names of such famous battles as Iwo Jima, Midway, Tarawa and the Coral Sea.

Fluckey said that ground was broken for stadium construction March 1. Target date for completion is August 1959.

Fluckey explained that since Congress does not appropriate money for athletics, funds are being raised by public subscription. Total cost for the stadium will be $2,900,000.

"WE'VE RAISED $2,300,000 to date," Fluckey noted. "Most of it came from voluntary contributions of enlisted men and officers."

"But," he added, "most of this group has been wrong dry. Now we're appealing to the public to

"In tribute to all those submariners still on their last patrol, presented by submarine veterans of World War II and steadfast friends."

Fluckey noted that academy stadium facilities consist of rickety wooden bleachers erected in 1912 through public subscription. The stands have been condemned and are now being demolished.

A veteran of 27 years of Naval service, Fluckey regards the memorial stadium as a personal project.

HE WAS A SUBMARINER for 18 years and feels a strong kinship to "the more than 4,000 men on 52 submarines who are standing an eternal watch down under the Pacific."

Fluckey, now head of the Academy's electrical engineering department, commanded the historic "Barb" in 1944 and 1945. In five patrols, the sub destroyed 26 Japanese ships, including an aircraft carrier, a cruiser and destroyers.

HIS WAS THE first submarine ever to launch rockets against a shore installation.

Worst Storm in 50 Years Roars Over California

Planners Give Shopping Center Okeh

Now Goes To City Council For Approval

Approval of Palm Springs first regional shopping center was given by a vote of 6 to 1 yesterday by the Palm Springs City Planning Commission.

The Commission put its stamp of approval on the application from Seeterra, Inc., developers of a proposed regional shopping center. The boundaries of the proposed district are Baristo on the north, and east of the San Jacinto Estates. The shopping center will be divided by the extension of Farrell Drive.

WITH THE COMMISSION being unable to approve the issuing of a permit under the new city laws governing shopping centers, its recommendation for a conditional use permit (good for three years) will go to the city council at its next regular meeting.

W. Conan Thornton, president of Seeterra, Inc., said that work on the plans and the contacting of lessees will start immediately after the approval is given by the council.

Thousands Forced From Homes Today

Storm Blamed For at Least 5 Deaths in State

SAN FRANCISCO — A savage storm roared over California today, turning placid streams into torrents, forcing thousands to flee and destroying homes and crops.

The storm, worst in a half century, was blamed for at least five deaths as it raked the length and breadth of the state with squalls, torrential downpours, heavy mountain snows and gale winds.

GOV. GOODWIN J. Knight proclaimed the whole state a disaster area.

Northern California had the worst of the storm Wednesday, but the weatherman predicted occasional squalls today along with heavy snow in the mountains.

The storm buffeted Southern California today, causing innumerable landslides and power failures and felling trees throughout the area. Three inches of rain fell during the night at Lake Hughes near Newhall.

THE FLOODS routed thousands of householders, at least 5,000 by conservative estimates, in Stockton, Palo Alto, South San Francisco, various parts of Alameda, Contra Costa and San Joaquin counties, along the Carmel River and in the Alviso area of Santa Clara County.

New breaks in the rain-soaked cliffs of the Pacific Palisades, near Los Angeles, threatened expensive homes atop the bluffs. Street crews put up wire fences in the threatened area and warned sightseers to stay away.

IN THE CENTRAL Valley, streams rose ominously as the storm front passed over the area. Minor flooding was expected on the Tule River and in local areas over Merced County, as well as the Fresno Irrigation District. The Chowchilla and Fresno rivers were expected to crest slightly below flood stage.

A flash flood sent water into parts of the city of Patterson during the night, forcing about two dozen families to sandbag their homes.

U.S. 99 IN THE northern section of Modesto was closed for several hours by high water.

A thick blanket of snow mantled the Sierra Nevada, closing Highway 40 from Auburn to the Nevada line and stranding hundreds of motorists in lodges along the way.

ALSO CLOSED WERE U.S. 50 over Echo Summit, from Placerville to the foot of Meyers Grade, and U.S. 40A, the Feather River Highway from Greenville Wye to Hailu Junction.

Meanwhile, the Southern Pacific pulled its crack streamliner, the City of San Francisco, back to Reno with its 97 passengers after it was stalled overnight at Norden by a wreck.

Texans Say 'Luckiest People' After Twin Tornadoes Hit

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. — Twin tornadoes "bouncing up and down like yo-yos in slow motion" rumbled through Wichita Falls and a nearby village late Wednesday, killing one man and injuring a dozen.

"We're the luckiest people ever," said Steve Marchand, director of Civil Defense here. The two tornadoes rumbled along the Wichita River, taking 15 minutes to traverse their course and missed the downtown section, packed at the rush hour, by three blocks.

MARCHAND SAID only the tail of one of the tornadoes touched the ground, which might have accounted for the "comparatively light" destruction and injury in the town of 100,000.

Wylie Taylor, 50, a rancher at Dean Dale, a tiny village 12 miles east of Wichita Falls, was dead. Taylor was apparently sitting in the living room of his home when it crumpled on top of him. Almost every building in Dean Dale was destroyed or damaged.

THE TWISTER that touched ground destroyed about 50 homes and buildings in Wichita Falls and damaged another 250. A.N. Anderson of the Department of Public Safety said, and left another 300 without power.

The tornado hit Wichita General Hospital and knocked out windows. Some patients panicked and had to be taken into the basement.

A tornado wrecked or damaged eight buildings around Bowie, southeast of Wichita Falls, but didn't hit the town. A tornado near Ringgold damaged several farm buildings.

Final Informal Hearing Held On Highway Plan

Last of the informal hearings on the location of Highway 111 alternate through Palm Springs was held yesterday afternoon, with strong protests presented against the locating of the highway west of the municipal airport.

During the highway discussion a group from the North Indian Avenue area also appeared to protest any consideration of one-way streets for Palm Canyon Drive and Indian Avenue.

The Planning Commission meeting was continued until tomorrow morning at 8 a.m. at a breakfast at the Biltmore Hotel.

In January

Sales, Use Tax Receipts Jump

Palm Springs sales and use tax receipts rose to $68,708 during the month of January, bringing to total tax collection for fiscal 1958 to a new high of $202,435.

Tax figures released by the state 90 days after collections showed an increased business volume of 13 percent accounting for $16,789 of the total, according to Shelby V. Langford, city director of finance.

Another 14 per cent of the year's receipts to the end of January, or $18,107, was attributed to an increased number of businesses.

Last year's tax receipts through January allied $129,337, but the difference is largely attributed to new tax additions and procedures. Addition of a use tax added $19,467 to the 1958 total. Collection of the taxes by the state, beginning last July 1, added another $6,466, Langford pointed out.

Girl, 11, Escapes Serious Injury In Bike-Car Crash

Eleven-year-old Pamela Gail Mashburn escaped serious injury this morning when her bicycle collided with an auto on East Ramon Road, near Sunrise Way.

Police said Pamela, of 1357 Camino Anapola, was carrying an armload of groceries home when she apparently pedaled her bike into the side of a passing auto at a Ramon Trailer Park driveway.

The girl was bruised and shaken, but suffered no serious injury.

Driver of the car was identified as Mildred Wilson, 58, of Ramon Trailer Park.

April 14 Set for Recommendation On Highway Improvement Demand

"The residents of the Coachella Valley feel that action on the proposed improvement of Highway 111 has been delayed too long, and they are now aroused and prepared to take any action within their means to correct the deplorable Highway 111 situation," the Board of Supervisors was advised this week by the Special Committee for Master Plan of Highways from Palm Springs to Indio, a sub-committee of the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee.

The supervisors referred the committee's demand to the planning commission and road department for study and report April 14, request at the suggestion of Supervisor George Berkey that it be given "a high degree of priority."

THE COMMITTEE urged that the Board of Supervisors immediately inaugurate the following three-point program:

1. Demand of the State Highway Commission that it immediately commence improvement of Highway 111 by construction of a four-lane boulevard and adjoining parking lanes from Cathedral City to Point Happy.
2. Establish a building set-back line at 70 feet from the center of Highway 111 and provide assurance that no further frontage roads will be established along the present route of Highway 111 which might eventually provide an entree for an expressway or freeway development.

3. INSTRUCT THE road department to work with the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee's special committee in establishing a plan and route for an eventual expressway and freeway north of Highway 111 to be submitted to the state highway commission, with rights of way to be acquired as soon as possible while property values are still nominal.

The Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce's committee on roads and highways asked the supervisors Feb. 17 to request the state to take action toward immediate improvement of Highway 111 for a distance of approximately two miles east of its intersection with Highway 74 which branches off Highway 111 at Palm Desert.

THE PLANNING committee's request for the highway's improvement "from Cathedral City to Point Happy" covers a distance of approximately 11 miles.

Whereas the planning committee's demand is for a "four-lane boulevard and adjoining parking lanes," the Palm Desert committee asked for three lanes on either side of a landscaped island, with a nine-foot parking area on each side.

The response by the Board of Supervisors to the Palm Desert request was adoption of a resolution March 17 asking the state Division of Highways "to pursue to the earliest possible conclusion its studies for the improvement and widening of State Highway 111 in the vicinity of Palm Desert."

Moving, Storage Association Sets Convention

California Moving and Storage Association will hold its 40th annual convention at El Mirador Hotel April 9 through 12, with more than 600 members and their wives expected to attend.

This convention breaks a tradition established by the association, in that it is being held at the same place two successive years.

THE GROUP previously had a policy of alternating between Northern and Southern California, but so many of the members expressed their complete approval of the facilities and the hospitality extended them in Palm Springs in 1957 that it was decided to return this year.

Many representatives of nationwide moving organizations from throughout the United States will attend, as well as officers and members of national associations within the industry.

FEATURED AT the convention will be a novel demonstration in which furniture will be placed in high or inaccessible locations by the use of helicopters.

A complete social and entertainment program has been planned by Charles A. Woelfel, executive secretary of the association, with one innovation being the establishment of a soft drink bar for the entertainment of teenagers who accompany their parents.

The convention will close Saturday night, April 12, with a banquet honoring the newly elected officers of the association.

Senate Democratic Leaders Says Anti-Recession Moves to Continue

By RAYMOND LAHR
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON — Acting Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield put the Eisenhower administration on notice today that Democrats will keep pressing their own anti-recession moves in Congress and that more can be expected after Easter.

This was Mansfield's answer to the go-slow signal President Eisenhower hoisted Wednesday on some of the big spending anti-recession programs of the Democratic-controlled Congress.

CONGRESS WILL adjourn after today's session for an Easter holiday until April 14.

During the recess, senators and representatives will make first-hand checks on how the recession has affected their constituents, and particularly try to gauge voter sentiment on whether taxes should be cut. The President repeated at his news conference Wednesday that it is too early to decide about a tax reduction. He said that is something at which "we have got to stop and look very, very steadily."

BEFORE QUITTING for Easter, the House called up for action a compromise highway bill which was one of the Senate Democrats' main anti-recession measures. The immediate fate of the legislation was in doubt, however, because it contained a Senate-approved anti-billboard provision to which House Democratic leaders have objected.

The President was confronted today with a decision on whether to approve another bill that would authorize the spending of more than $1,500,000,000 on river, harbor and flood control projects. The Senate approved it 52 to 11 Wednesday night.

SOME CONGRESSIONAL Republicans believed Eisenhower was likely to veto it as he did a similar bill in 1956 on grounds that it contained many projects not approved by the administration.

Eisenhower told his news conference the economy cannot be stimulated "just by spending federal money." He said he was not opposed to quick congressional action on bills that would be "really effective" but warned against hasty approval of measures that might injure the "long term prospects of our economy."

Larsen, of 1056 Manzanita, is under treatment for serious spinal injuries at Casita Hospital in Indio.

UN Observers Check Scene Of Two Battles

JERUSALEM, Israel — United Nations observers carried out an on the spot survey today of the scenes of two gun-battles between Israeli and United Arab Republic troops Sunday and Monday.

Object of the U.N. survey was to determine the exact boundaries of the demilitarized zone—always a major bone of contention between the two sides.

Israeli workers suspended drainage work in the battle area today as the U. N. observers went about their work. The area has only recently been reclaimed from Lake Huleh.

New Home Bill Now In Effect

WASHINGTON — Starting today, homes financed by FHA-insured loans can be purchased with lower down payments.

This reduction is one of the principal provisions of a $1,850,000,000 anti-recession housing bill signed into law Tuesday by President Eisenhower. The legislation is designed to speed the building of 200,000 homes this year and to create 500,000 new jobs.

Florida 'Freezes' to Benefit Coachella Valley Agriculturists

Far reaching effect of the series of Florida "freezes" this winter combined with bitter cold weather and deep snows in much of the rest of the nation is now resulting in higher prices in a number of food products.

Prominent in the list in short supply are citrus, produce, poultry, fish and beef, all of which have been increasing in price at both the wholesale and retail levels.

Since California and most of the southwestern part of the United States escaped the freeze and enjoyed a comparatively mild winter, the rest of the country will depend heavily upon the Coachella Valley and Imperial Valley and other parts of the state as a major source of its market supplies during the remainder of 1958.

While we are not wont to capitalize on the misfortunes of other regions, full farm production at higher prices will be a boon long needed by California agriculturists and ranchers.

Because all of our wealth basically comes from the soil, an outstanding year of profit for those who produce from it is bound to strengthen our entire economy and far more than offset the price increase earned by the farmers. When farmers prosper even the city dwellers receive many benefits from their spending and purchases.

With more than half of the people of the United States residing in the rural areas and dependent upon farming for their income, the nation can never attain solid and universal prosperity unless the farmer is receiving enough for his products, over and above the cost of production, to yield a good living for his labor and investment.

The wide extent of the hard winter "freeze" just passed appears to be a blessing in disguise, even in the areas of curtailed production, for it has raised farm prices to an extent not possible by legislation and price supports and will cut heavily into unwanted surpluses.

The farmer seems due at long last to have his day in the upward spiral. And it is indeed fortunate for California, with its vast production, that the greatest benefits will soon be felt here.

The Maestro at Work

WASHINGTON, D. C. — They say in Texas and elsewhere that the higher up the ladder you go, the better shot people have at your exposed surfaces. This is what is happening to Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson, at whom these random shots have recently been fired by:

1. Former Senator Herbert Lehman (D., N. Y.), addressing the National Democratic Club in New York City, took dead aim at Johnson (although he also mentioned Speaker Rayburn) and complained that the great affairs of state are no longer debated in Washington.

JOHNSON HAS made himself famous as the master parliamentarian who has greatly improved and speeded up Senate activity. Lehman remarked that the Senate leader "did almost everything to prevent any controversial issue from being seriously joined or vigorously debated."

Specifically, he charged that "civil rights and foreign policy" were "buried alive."

2. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, a number of weeks ago, referred without approval to Johnson's skill in maneuver.

3. JOSEPH RAUCH and Robert Nathan, Washington leaders of Americans for Democratic Action, have disapproved of Johnson. They are knowledgeable regarded as the originators of a complaint repeated in public places, to wit: "The Senate has just become a Lyndon Johnson circus."

4. Dedicated liberals who will say, off record, that Johnson must be prevented from becoming either the nominee or the king-maker at the 1960 Democratic Convention.

IN THESE ATTACKS Senator Johnson suffers both because he is high up the ladder and also because he is in the middle position of the political spectrum, equidistant from both extremes. The Senator is too much of a mature personality to quarrel with the scholarly maxim of another pro, Harry Truman, who said: "If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen."

As a front-line, Johnson will continue to get shot at and it is inevitable that he will occasionally get wounded in the fray. But in simple justice, it ought to be reported that the Majority Leader's way of running the Senate has the enthusiastic approval of his colleagues and is more in the manner of an orchestra maestro than a dictator. For example, the highways bill which was threshed out in the Senate last week had this background:

WHEN INFORMED by a spokesman for the Public Works committee that the highway bill would be ready for the floor after mid-March, Senator Johnson gave two weeks notice as to the day set for debate.

But Senator Roman Hruska (R., Neb.), who opposed the committee's version of the bill, asked for another week of preparation. This was granted. Johnson notified all Senators that the bill would be brought up on Monday, March 24. But Senator Albert Gore (D., Tenn.), who has great interest in the bill, said he would be out of town that day. Therefore, the bill was brought up at the end of Senate business on Tuesday, March 25.

JOHNSON OFFERED a unanimous agreement to keep the debate on its track. He proposed a limit of 2 hours debate on every amendment and an additional 2 hours on the bill itself. But Senators Kerr (D., Okla.) and Hruska (Neb.) thought that time insufficient for their amendment on billboards.

Johnson agreed to give them four hours. Senators Neuberger (D., Ore.) and Martin (R., Penna.) and some others wanted more time to discuss the utilities amendment. Johnson agreed to give them 3 hours, but with the compromise that the time on other amendments and on the bill itself be reduced to one hour.

IN THIS INSTANCE, as in all others, the Majority Leader has something close to an obsession for what he calls "touching all bases." This means that he contacts the Minority Leader, Senator Knowland, all chairmen of pertinent committees, all individuals with personal interest in the matter at hand.

While the highways bill was being debated, a telephone call went through to Switzerland where Senator Monroney (D., Okla.) was representing the Senate on the executive council of the inter-parliamentary union.

JOHNSON WANTED Monroney's views on the highways bill so that the absentee's vote could be "paired" against that of some contrary-minded Senator. It was also necessary to get Monroney's proxy for another important bill, the community facility measure, supplying Federal funds for small town public works.

If the Senate runs smoothly, these are some reasons why. It's hard to see why there are any grounds for complaint.—Holmes Alexander

Worried About His Mount

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

The way things are going with our Rose Tournay Float, come next January we'll have a chance to float.

Palm Springs Rose Tournay Float association has just concluded the first part of a campaign to raise funds to help defray the expected $15,000 cost of putting a beautiful Palm Springs Float in next New Year's Rose parade at Pasadena.

MRS. THERESA PRESS, chairman of the Float Association, yesterday reported one incident at the booth the group maintained on Palm Canyon Drive in their campaign to boost the fund.

A little girl shyly came to the booth and told her: "I want to join the association and help," she faltered. "That's fine," said Mrs. Press. "What would you like to do, buy a Decal or a membership?"

THE LITTLE GIRL stammered and replied she couldn't do either. "I only have a quarter—but I want to help," she said. "That's fine, but why do you want to help?"

"Because I love Palm Springs and I want to see a Palm Springs Float in the parade. Please let me help."

Mrs. Press accepted the offering and the child is a member of the Float association.

BY THE WAY, you others who love Palm Springs and want to see us represented in the Rose Tournament parade next Jan. 1, need only call the Float association.

THE OTHER DAY in the news items I saw where two women went into a New York night club attired in nothing and ordered cocktails and dinner in the raw—that is, they were in the raw. The part I was interested in was that the United Press, dispatch which told of the incident described the two 'ladies' as barefoot, up to their chins.

Ladies? Isn't that what could be termed an overstatement?

SEE WHERE THE STATE is still obdurate about traffic signals at the Y where Indian Avenue and Palm Canyon Drive meet. Oh, well, and here we go again, they could relieve some of the hassle there if they built another crossing over Tahquitz Creek between Palm Canyon Drive and Sunrise Way. Talk about a freeway dividing the town—there's a full mile between the two present crossings of Tahquitz.

ANOTHER NEWS ITEM interested me. It was from Naples, Italy, and detailed that in a municipal census, authorities counted 181,985 married men and 184,508 married women. Recall that Ambrose Bierce once said that all women should marry and all men remain single—but in Naples, the Police Dept. Division of Marriage Swindles and Bigamy, has started an investigation.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

There is a good deal of action going on. Camp Fire Girls Birthday Week is over, leaving a couple of packages of aging cookies on my pantry shelf. Coming up is National Ladder Month. Get your feet on the bottom rung.

This is National Rug Cleaning Month and National Laugh Week.

THE MONTH is dedicated to the Cereal and Milk Spring Festival—the cereal and milk people hope you will eat hearty. MIK, as we say. More in the kitchen.

Jayne Mansfield is an attractive lady I met some time ago at the Overseas Press Club in New York. She sits on leopard skins.

What I mean, Miss Mansfield drives a bomb with leopard seat covers.

I HAVE AN EARLY morning phone call from a writer friend in Hollywood. Near Sunset and Vine he spotted a pink Thunderbird. With pink fur!

"I give you my word," he said. "It was an inch and a half thick! Like a pink teddy bear." Being an inquisitive fellow, he hung around rubbing his hand up and down the pink upholstery. Until a lady dressed in pink came out of the television studios and gave him a dirty look.

HOWEVER, HE has the gall of a burglar and a long background on the dailies. Therefore he stepped up and introduced himself.

The lady softened at the mention of newspaper. She said she was Miss Sandra Giles and she is the new Jayne Mansfield.

Shows what you can see this National Rug Cleaning and Ladder Month. If you keep your eyes open and a foot on the rung.

LADY DOCKER had a gold-plated Daimler. It had leopard seat covers or something equally exotic. Lady Docker did not upholster.

A most confusing world. But wonderful. Simply wonderful.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

"Is choice of tours, comrades! Quaint old England with its decadent monarchical despotism; La Belle France with its tottering corrupt institutions, or exciting U.S.A. with its despicable cannibalistic war-mongering!"

EARL WILSON:

Leo the Louse, Go Home!

NEW YORK—Leo the Louse is back operating on Broadway... proving to his many enemies that even during a recession, a heel can live it up in Glamoursville on very little loot.

Back during the Hoover Depression, Leo the Louse kept from starving by crashing cocktail parties and making a meal out of the canapes.

"Now Leo's more hep," says a man who knows about 40 of these Saloon Society bums around Our Town.

"He's a bachelor... men are scarcer than they were in the 1930s... women are looser... he gets invited to dinner at women's homes... he slips a gold cigarette lighter or even some loose cash into his pocket, if the hostess is careless enough to leave valuables around. He thinks it's better than working."

Leo is loaded with tricks. He calls girls from phone booths and, when it's time for another nickel, tells them, "You call me back"—so they pay.

He won't date girls from Brooklyn... too much cab fare. He's been known to go to an expensive restaurant, eat part of his dinner, then suddenly announce "This food stinks." He carefully tips the waiter, who's inclined to see it his way. He may abruptly decide that the champagne's flat—and get half a bottle free.

Leo the Louse hates to buy a drink—even for himself.

Hanging around the bars, he'll decide to "wait a while"—translated, until somebody offers to buy him one. If he should have to buy for himself, he'll "just have a little seltzer" (often free), or perhaps he feels only like a good cold beer. He develops a memory lapse and forgets to tip.

He'll jump out of a cab when the meter's registering 45c and hand the cabbie 50c. He's a nickel-elipper.

All the girls in town are onto Leo the Louse.

Chorus girls, who have to watch their spending, know that chicken-in-the-pot is a good cheap dinner because look, you get soup right in it... that you can have a very reasonable Florida vacation

(if you go in the off season)... that flying is very cheap (if you travel tourist class at night).

When they have a date with Leo they're hungrier and thirstier than usual, and they go to the powder room oftener—always letting him know they expect him to give them a tip for the matron.

"My God, I'm practically keeping that matron!" he grumbles. "I practically got her on my payroll."

That's why Leo the Louse is doing a lot of giggling this recession. Chorus girls cost too much. "If there's anything I hate," Leo will be glad to advise you, "it's a cheap dame!"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL... Judy Garland's laryngitis is back, and she's doing only one show a night at a Brooklyn cafe... Mike Todd was being set for an appearance on "This Is Your Life"... Marie McDonald's here, but her father's very ill in California; she says she's forgetting Harry Karl and is "starting a whole new life."

Montgomery Clift flew to Chicago to comfort Liz Taylor (at the suggestion of his doctor, who's also Liz's medic)... Esther Williams and Ben Gage agreed on the property settlement... Serge Rubinstein's estate is finally paying his cafe debts; one place just got its $32... George DeWitt went to Havana to date Linda Christian; she didn't show, so he dated actress Linda Cristal...

Monique Van Vooren's boy friend told her to "get rid of those minks you didn't buy yourself"—so she's wearing cloth coats... Lola Mason, a Miss N.Y.C. contest finalist, just finished an unusual job—convincing housewives to serve more rabbit meat.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: The father of the bride usually looks on his son-in-law as the second happiest man in the world. TODAY'S BEST LAUGH:

The best way to get a steady job on TV nowadays is to work like a horse—or be one. Taffy Tuttle was notified that she'd won an oil well in a contest (relates Tony Pettito), and asked if it could be delivered to her home... That's earl, brother.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Lavender for Kim Novak

HOLLYWOOD — Kim Novak, Hollywood's Lavender Lady, ordered her new $125,000 Bel-Air lean-to decorated ALL in lavender, including various shades of light purple, deep purple, orchid, mauve, lilac and off-gelant. Decorations in one room, which she'll call The Amethyst Room, will be built around her most prized possessions—a white polar bear rug and four yak hides.

So-Yo-Wanna - Be - a - Singer Dept.: Canary Keely Smith won her first introduction to her baton-weaving better-half, Louis Prima, by getting herself elected president of his Norfolk, Va., fan club.

FERNANDO LAMAS bowed out of backstopping Brigitte Bardot in her new French movie, "The Lady and the Puppet," because Brigitte insisted he fly to Paris and sign the contract before she would let him read the script.

Marlon Brando's father enrolled for some sessions with Neville, a Hollywood metaphysician. Bob Hope's joke about this drunk leaning against a building—so up comes a cop and says, "Whatcha doin'—holding up the building?" Drunk: "Sure." Cop: "G'wan, move on!" So the drunk moves on and the building falls on the cop. Moral: Don't Be a Skeptic.

FUNERALS-IN - HOLLYWOOD Dept.: They played "Around the World in 80 Days" at Mike Todd's memorial services and "Thanks for the Memory" and "Where or When" at Don Hartman's.

Ronnie Burns, at Rip Record's pre-Army romp for Russ Tamblin, told us he's been classified 4-F... Tamblin's ex-wife, Venetia Stevenson, came to the party too but scrambled when she saw that his date was Diane Varsi.

MAE WEST's explanation for the black-spangled sheath into which she poured her for her Oscarcast stint with Rock Hudson: "A woman should dress like a woman." A funny thing about Nat ("King") Cole and W. C. Handy, the songwriter portrayed by Nat in "St. Louis Blues": Both are songs of preachers and both sold out their interests in two great songs for a pitiful 50 bucks.

Nat's goofoff was "Straighten Up and Fly Right," which he sold to pay his rent, and Handy's was "Yellow Dog Blues," which he sold to keep up with his insurance payments.

BATTLE OF THE Mambo Beats on Fox's "The Hunters" set: Bob Mitchum's dressing room hi-fi vs. co-star Ma' Britt's bongo drums—and all sounding like "Tequila" played backwards!

Studio Overheard: "Boy, am I tired!"

I'm in trouble—I told the producer his wife fills out a sack dress better than anyone I know and now I find out she doesn't even OWN one!

TV TOPICS — Ray Milland dropped his hold on his No Holds Barred, his proposed controversial-type teleseries, because he couldn't come up with enough good, gutsy stuff—nothing, at least, to compare with Mike Wallace—to carry the load a full season. As Ray puts it, "No guts, no controversy, no series."

Character actor Mitch Kowal, who sooner or later bites the dust in every Western series worth its oats on the telebeam, tags himself The Maxie Rosenbloom of TV. "Because," says Mitch, "I spend more time on my back than on my feet."

IF RED BUTTONS knows what he's talking about (and Red's elevator-type ups-and-downs in TV mark him as the telecomedians' Voice of Experience), the funny men don't have the slightest chance of carrying a weekly show. There just isn't enough good, dynamic material around. Reasons Red: "The only performer who can carry a weekly TV show is a singer because a singer NEVER runs out of material!"

Network nabobs are noodling around with the notion of a teleseries starring frantic Frances Faye. Which is fine-and-fancy for the dial-twisters but where will the bistro be without the frenetic Miss Faye?

MERCURY RECORDS, yarning a homey, "personal" sound for its new Steve Allen album, sped Steve out here to Hollywood and had him wax the disk in movie producer Joe Pasternak's living room.

British Television Centre, now a building on a blockbusting budget of $25,000,000 on a 13-acre site at White City, London, won't be pressed into full service until 1961... Meanwhile, British Broadcasting Co. is dickering a deal with Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca for 13 weekly half-hour segments to be beamed in Blighty this summer, after the two wind up their ABC-TVagaries in June.

GEORGE JESSEL jotted 11 gueststars—Bill Fawcett, Phil Baker, Pamela Mason, Connie Haynes, Benny Bartlett, Ronald Overacker (you may remember him from the old days as W. C. Field's sidekick, Baby LeRoy), David Holt, Harry Ruby, Leo Robin, Sandra Giles and Joan Shawlee—for the new George Jessel's Show Business telefilm series now in production at Desilu.

Ted ("Gunsmoke") Post's postscript: "We're rapidly approaching the utmost in adult Westerns—the day when the hero not only kisses but MARRIES the leading lady."

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law should be told off but I am not the one to do it. She never gives one cent to the Polio Fund, United Crusade, T. B. Seals, Cancer or Heart because she says if these causes fall short, the government makes up the deficit. She never even had the deed to her farm registered because she doesn't want to pay taxes on it. The only reason she paid her poll tax this year was because she's been asked to help in the elections and they will pay her for it. She burns me up but I have been taught to respect my elders. What's the matter with her anyway?

BURNED UP DEAR BURNED: Your mother-in-law is a medical miracle. She has a cash register where her heart belongs. P. S. The government does NOT make up deficits for the above-mentioned causes.

DEAR ABBY: So... "A WIFE WHO KNOWS" thinks all we secretaries have to do all day is make whoopee with their husbands? We may arrive at the office looking glaucous, but after a hectic day of catering to the boss' whims, putting up with his childish tantrums, placating all the people he's insulted to make him look like a god to his clients, we don't care how we look! As for that vodka bottle in the bottom drawer... I wish I had one. I'd like to break it over my boss' fat head and give him away. A SECRETARY WHO KNOWS BETTER

DEAR ABBY: My brother was married for three years to a woman who was no good. He divorced her in a scandalous court fight (she contested it) when he had pictures to prove she had cavorted all the way with six different men. My brother never re-married after that because he lost all faith in women. He passed away a single man. Now his ex-wife is calling herself a WIDOW instead of a divorcee. How can we stop her?

HIS SISTER DEAR SISTER: You can't stop her from calling herself whatever she wishes, but I imagine those who know her are still calling her by the name she earned.

DEAR ABBY: I am on the verge of a nervous breakdown because my husband (age 46) refuses to go to Night School although he can't read, write, count or even understand the calendar. He thinks because he makes a good salary he doesn't have to know these things but everybody is robbing him blind because of his ignorance. He says he is too old to learn and would rather watch Westerns on T.V. than go to Night School. What can I do with this stubborn mule? DISCOURAGED DEAR DISCOURAGED: He is NOT too old to learn, but if he thinks he is and is too lazy to try, then let him suffer the consequences.

CONFIDENTIAL TO CONCERNED M.D.: If you are a doctor you know that a psychiatrist is also a physician and would not treat a patient for a mental illness until all the possibilities of a physical illness have been dealt with.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope.

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower, in a White House talk with 12 Eagle Boy Scouts about their safety program, on the urgent need for reducing the national accident toll:

The rapidly approaching occasion of Easter means much, but usually something different to each of us. For one thing, it means that our Village suddenly has a glimpse of our American college youth . . . which in their eagerness, anticipation, and potentiality, compare with our current display of color from the abundant wildflowers.

Your own enthusiasm will be just as abundant about the flourish of spring styles at TED LAND'S FEMININE FOOTWEAR! Easter can be your occasion for "the first wearing," but such fashion-right shoes will be your pride and joy on through the seasons.

THE MOST EXCITING NEW style is the THONGLESS THONG . . . deceptively thonglike in appearance, but easier to wear . . . appropriate for more occasions . . . more graceful to walk in. At Ted Land's, they are featured with the popular MID HEEL or the high slim STILETTO.

COLOR IS THE keynote . . . and you'll find turquoise, red, orange, yellow, white, black patent (arriving soon) and STAINED GLASS with the mid heel. The stained glass is a design of fabulous true colors on imported silk combined with clear vinyl, making them versatile and complementary to your entire summer wardrobe. There is also a smart handbag of the same fabric.

DELIBERATELY flattering with the higher stiletto heel, is all white or HARLEQUIN PRINTED SILK. Fashion nods favorably to prints this season and this one deserves an OSCAR. It is a third dimensional design of enchanting pastels . . . a magic companion for any costume . . . and perfectly mated with an originally designed handbag, discerningly lined with satin.

Surley, the Easter Bunny, anticipated your whims when he left these fashionable flatterers for you at TED LAND'S FEMININE FOOTWEAR. (142 South Palm Canyon)

You have perhaps envisioned these attractive pieces around your pool or in your home before . . . until you read the price tags. No need to dream any longer, you

A new and much appreciated feature, is nylon self leveling GLIDES. It is an ingenious method of not realizing whether the contractor poured a flawlessly level slab or not . . . and it won't really matter.

Available . . . and matching also . . . are coffee tables and TRI NESTING TABLES. Tri for triangle, and that's their intriguing shape . . . to be used singly, arranged together, or they can be stacked.

THE SEASON IS right to congratulate Baron Robert Silvercruys, the Belgian Ambassador to the United States, for having the interest of the Belgian people and their splendid Universal Exhibition in Brussels at heart!

He has just sent to Dr. Pervy a scale model of the ATOMIUM . . . which is the theme structure of the fair at Brussels. Eighteen Palm Springs people already are booked with the summer's PERVY TOURS, and they will enjoy visiting the fair grounds of Brussels, where the latest word in the accomplishments of modern science will be revealed.

In addition, Dr. Pervy's Tour will visit 14 countries of Europe in a carefree HOLIDAY lasting three months . . . beginning June 27 until Sept. 3. There is limited space still available with PERVY TOURS. (211 South Palm Canyon—opposite the Automobile Club) Adv.

Grading started yesterday on the site of the 77-home development located on a 20-acre tract one mile south of Reunion Road and one mile east of the city limits. First models will be ready about May 1. Property for the subdivision was sold to the Sun-Spa Development Corporation by Gossley. Onlookers on the ground-breaking were, left to right, F. J. Bell, Sun-Spa vice president; Joe Palozzi, real estate broker who represented both parties in the land transaction; contractor James Butler, Fred Smith, Sun-Spa secretary-treasurer; Bob Taylor, of the Palm Springs Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and Sun-Spa President Al Casey. Idyllwild Road Closing to Be Studied Again

A request by the Tahquitz Conference Association that the Board of Supervisors deny a petition for the closing of Rim Rock Road in Idyllwild where it runs south off John Muir Road a distance of 125 feet to the association's Tahquitz Pines Christian Endeavor camp, was referred to the planning commission and road department this week.

Lee Bailey, president of the association, said the camp grounds comprise approximately 18 acres. He said release of title, asked by the petitioners, would deprive the association of access by truck or car to a very important part of their grounds.

"It is our hope," said Bailey, "to build cabins in this area in the near future. Without this road it would be necessary to bridge a ravine and cut a road for some distance on our property to reach the area in question."

Idyllwild Liquor License Request Filing Delayed

Filing of an application by Margaret P. and William L. Dutton for an off-sale beer and wine license for the Idyllwild Gourmet was postponed by the Board of Supervisors this week for two weeks at the request of Supervisor Fred McCall.

McCall observed that the same application was made "two months ago by the Duttons as officers of Idyllwild Markets, Inc. and the board had notified the state liquor control board that they were opposed to issuance of the license.

DUTTON TOLD THE supervisors that the Idyllwild Markets application had been withdrawn and the application is being filed instead by himself and Mrs. Dutton as individuals. He went on to say that the Idyllwild All Year Resort plans to rebuild the building across from his market in the village used by Idyllwild Ice & Fuel for his Idyllwild Gourmet.

"Without the liquor license the Gourmet could not survive," Dutton declared, "and without the Gourmet as lessee, reconstruction of the building will not take place."

DUTTON AGREED to the two weeks delay after McCall had said that if action had to be taken immediately he would ask the supervisors to protest granting of the license.

"If I can have two weeks to look into the matter and determine whether there is opposition to it, if possible I won't recommend board opposition," said McCall.

Saund Replies to Criticism Concerning His Proposed Three Amendments to Law Covering Imported Labor

By D. S. SAUND
29th Congressional District
I have received several letters and other information pointing to the fact that my bill, H. R. 10963, to amend Public Law 87, is grossly misunderstood by some farmers in Imperial and Coachella Valleys.

I wish to make the contents and purpose of the bill absolutely clear. The bill proposes three amendments to Public Law 78 as follows:

MY FIRST AMENDMENT reiterates the existing provisions of Public Law 78, i.e., that wherever local labor is available for farm work, no imported labor should be hired. That is understood by everybody concerned.

Because of the present unemployment situation throughout the country, there is a great clamor on the part of the people everywhere to do something to relieve that situation. The cooperation of the farmers in furnishing work to local people will assist tremendously in the efforts of the Administration and Congress to solve the difficult unemployment situation throughout the Nation.

MY SECOND amendment proposes to prohibit the sale of any merchandise excepting tobacco and food at company stores in labor camps. This amendment was prepared at the request of merchants in my District, who advised me that they were feeling the pinch of the large farm labor payroll not being spent in the cities of the area.

Since the farm labor payroll is the largest payroll in some agricultural areas, it is important that every effort should be made to assist the local merchants in sharing its benefits.

EVERY DAY YOU read releases from the White House and news of action taken by the Congress to put money into circulation in order to stimulate buying in the United States. The lawmakers want payrolls for their areas.

I am called upon to vote for the appropriation of hundreds of millions of dollars on anti-recession measures. It is only fair that I do everything possible to help local communities get their proper and deserving share of the local payroll.

TWO WEEKS AGO in my Newsletter, I urged closer cooperation between the farmers and the merchants of different communities. Wherever there are no company stores in the camps and wherever there is no abuse on the part of the camp managers of their privileged position, my amendment will not apply. It is very difficult for me to understand the excitement about this simple and straightforward move on the part of the people's representative in Congress to help the bona-fide businessmen of his own District.

My third amendment will limit visits to braceros to Mexico to once a month unless their families live within ten miles of the border. This is a highly debatable and involved issue. I have already decided to withdraw this amendment.

I AM THOROUGHLY familiar with the situation of the farmers in my area and I fully agree with them that importation of Mexican Nationals for work on farms in my District is absolutely essential.

I have always supported Public Law 78. I am not very happy about some of the abuses which have cropped up in the operation of the law. The overbearing behavior and lack of perspective on the part of a few managers of farm labor associations has generated opposition to the renewal of Public Law 78, which will soon be up for vote in Congress.

PERHAPS IT IS not known to the farmers in my District, but it is a fact that I did as much as any other member of Congress to prevent the Secretary of Labor for imposing unrealistic labor regulations on farmers who use imported labor.

When I was in conference with the Secretary of Labor, with other California congressmen, this is what happened:

Secretary Mitchell said, "Let us look at these proposed departmental regulations for farm labor camps and determine which one of these regulations you congressmen object to."

I SAID, "MR. Secretary, I do not intend to discuss your proposed regulation. My question is, which one of the regulations of the State of California for farm labor camps do not meet your departmental standards? In the State of California we have a very good and strong set of regulations for the operators of farm labor camps. If those regulations are good enough for American citizens working on farms, they certainly should be good enough for imported farm labor."

As a consequence of such efforts by people's representatives in Congress the farmers of my District and the Nation were saved from unrealistic regulations which had been prepared by the Department of Labor. I am not seeking credit. I believe very sincerely that the American people are capable of understanding the public issues and peering under smoke screens.

I am sending copies of my bill to every library in the farming areas of the District, with the request that farmers' and businessmen take time out to read the bill and its analysis by legislative experts.

Ripley Housing Project Put on June 3 Ballot

Inclusion of the low rent housing proposition in Ripley on the June 3 primary election ballot was ordered by the Board of Supervisors this week after George W. Scott, executive director of the Housing Authority of the County of Riverside, had asked that it not be delayed for a hearing since there is no opposition to it.

Last week the supervisors decided to hold a hearing on proposals for low rent housing in the Ripley area and the West Riverside (Rubidoux) area on May 5. This meant it would be impossible because of the time element to get the propositions on the June 3 ballot.

SUPERVISOR GEORGE Berkeley agreed with Scott's statement that there appears to be no opposition in the Ripley area. "I made some contacts there," he said, "and find considerable support and no opposition." The board voted four to one, with Supervisor William Jones dissenting, on a motion by Supervisor Berkeley to put the Ripley issue on the June ballot.

Said Jones, "There should be a public hearing on any low rent housing proposal because it affects the whole county tax-wise."

THE SUPERVISORS voted unanimously for adoption of a resolution setting the May 5 hearing on the West Riverside project.

The Ripley project will be voted on only in the Neighbors and Palo Verde precincts. It was proposed by the Ripley Improvement Association and would provide 50 houses.

Internal Revenue Office Closing Set on April 15

Riddell, district director of Internal Revenue, Los Angeles District, today announced that all Internal Revenue offices will close at 4:45 p.m., April 15, with the exception of the Los Angeles headquarters office in the Federal Building, 312 North Spring Street, which will remain open until 9 p.m.

Telephone service also will be provided until that time.

Driving Suspensions

MONTPELIER, Vt. — (UP) — The Motor Vehicle Department issued 10 lifetime driving suspensions against Vermont motorists during 1957 to raise the figure to 84 such suspensions the state's history. Motorists also set a new all-time highway death figure with 105 road deaths for the year.

Sentence Follows Attack; Police Chief Issues Warning

One man was sentenced to 90 days in jail, 60 days suspended, and another entered a plea of not guilty and was held to answer, following an allegedly unprovoked attack on a man and his son on Palm Canyon Drive yesterday evening.

Sentenced after entering a plea of guilty was Ernie Rossi, 25, carpenter and resident of Banning, and the other man, 19-year-old Banning laborer Stuart A. Bartels, was held to answer on charges of assault.

The beating followed an incident that was explained by Chief of Police August G. Kettmann as "an unwarranted attack." He said the victims, J. R. Young and his son, Larry, of Forterville, were attempting to park their car on Palm Canyon Drive, when a car driven by the suspects drove into the parking space.

When Young told the two men that he was attempting to park in the space, he was attacked, Kettmann said. He received blows on the face and neck, and his son, Larry, suffered a black eye.

Kettmann, in commenting on the incident, said that he did not want this blamed on the visiting juveniles in town, and added that the police department would not stand for any such "strong arm tactics or loss of tempers" by local residents.

Music and Dancing at Fiesta

The bongo drums were beating out at Western Hills Tuesday night with the weekly Cuban Fiesta in full swing. Music, dancing, and an exciting buffet, colorful decorations and costumes make this good entertainment and it's a regular Tuesday night affair.

Red-and-white tablecloths covered the tables and strings of bright-colored gourds and big hats decorated the rooms.

The buffet featured tacos and enchiladas, as well as more prosaic foods like excellent roast beef.

Clessa Williams and the Camerons opened the show, and the Guadalupe Boys and The Continentals took turns playing for the dancing. Favors included maracas, castanets and tambourines so the diners could keep time to the music, and dancing was in the Latin tempo. Flamenco dancers and Latin vocals rounded out a full program of entertainment.

Hildy Crawford, Desert Sun society editor and columnist, acted as hostess for the evening, substituting for Trav Rogers who is in Texas with Ray Ryan and the barnstorming Villagers and celebrities. It was an anniversary for Hildy and Bill Crawford so there was a big candle-light cake and they danced the anniversary waltz together.

The room was filled for the Fiesta night. The Don Camerons were there with a party which included their niece Jacqueline Laykin, and the Barney Hinkles were there. George and Daphne Cameron had his son George Jr. and Mrs. Victor Hugo Vidal with them.

Short Cuts in Ironing Shirts

It takes less than five minutes to iron a shirt if done properly, say home economists.

Experts at an appliance firm (Toastrmaster) offer these steps to follow for quick ironing:

Use either a dry or steam iron. Sprinkle the shirt well before pressing, and be sure heavily starched areas, such as collar and cuffs, are dampened thoroughly.

Fold the sprinkled shirt loosely, not in a tight roll. Let it stand about an hour.

Press the shirt dry, including the seams. Stretch the seams as you iron to avoid puckering or wrinkling. If the shirt is damp after ironing, it will wrinkle.

Iron sleeves and cuffs first, then the yoke and collar. Next press the left inside half of the back. Then bring the left front panel over the ironed part of the back and press that section, including the button hole panel.

Follow the same procedure on the right half of the shirt, including the button band. Then press both sides of the button hole panel and button band, holding them taut.

Pajama tops, blouses and similar garments also can be ironed faster this way. The economists recommend using a steam iron for nylon, dacron, and other synthetic fabrics.

Stuffed Prunes

To add novelty and something delicious to the lunchbox, try cinnamon-sugared prunes.

The prunes must be plumped and the pit removed. Then stuff the prune with a nut of some kind—preferably a walnut or almond—or a maraschino cherry.

Make a mixture of cinnamon and sugar and roll each prune in the combination until well covered.

First Nighter Dinner Has Irish-Jewish Theme of Play

First Nighter diners Tuesday night at El Mirador, preceding opening of "Uncle Willie" at Palm Springs Playhouse, enjoyed an unusual menu, keyed to the Irish-Jewish theme of the play. Chef Knaak expertly blended matzo ball broth with a glorified Irish stew and topped it off with apple blintzes. First Nighters

Leo Fuchs Stars in New Comedy

Tuesday night's audience at Palm Springs Playhouse, where "Uncle Willie" opened for a six night run, was kept in hilarious laughter by humorous speech antics, fast innuendoes and the many downright funny lines of its star, Leo Fuchs, master of a humor - pathos melding without peer.

The comedy, by Julie Berns and Irving Elman, is laid in the Bronx at the turn of the century, and presents the always delightful breaking down of unfriendly relationship creates the plot. In this case it is jealousy when the Donnigans move into the duplex owned and occupied by Uncle Willie's niece and her husband. This niece, played delightfully by Christy Palmer, so closely resembles the only girl, he ever loved, that Uncle Willie's reserve crumples whenever a crisis arises with the Irish neighbors, played by Marrian Walters and John Bonitz, and a series of situations develops that does no good for Uncle Willie.

Of course everything turns out happily at Christmas time in a touching scene between Uncle Willie and one of the Donnigan children, played by Jonathan Fuchs. The star held his audience in pin-drop silence through this scene and left them happy and just a little reverent.

Also in the cast was Rebecca Richman, in private life Mrs. Leo Fuchs, as the talkative Francie. Miss Richman is a master of the long, breathless, uninterrupted sentences and kept the audience in sustained laughter whenever she appeared. Each exit brought spirited applause.

Others in the capable cast are Matt Pelt, Dori Warren, George Byrne, young Sharon Steele, Michael Ferrall and Charles Palmer. The production, pleasingly staged and costumed, is under the direction of Michael Ferrall and sponsored by Palm Springs Playhouse Guild.

The student admission price of $1 for young people through high school age is in effect Wednesday, Thursday and Sunday nights.

Has Guests

Visiting at the home of Mrs. D. H. King at 1144 San Jacinto Way, are Mrs. Helen Baker and her grandson Charles Baker from La Jolla. Charles, who is a graduate of Palm Springs High School, has been at Fort Ord where he has completed his army training and received his discharge. He is a graduate of Whitmore College with a teacher's degree.

Candlesticks should not be immersed or soaked in water or scraped with a knife or sharp instrument to remove wax. Instead, sponge off the base with carbon tetrachloride or other cleaning fluid, and pour warm water into the socket. Let it stand until the wax softens, then wipe it out with a paper towel.

Bill Tackett In Hospital

Bill Tackett, owner of The Center, who suffered a heart attack last week and pneumonia at the same time, is still in the Desert Hospital. Mrs. Tackett said reports from the hospital are favorable but as yet he is not allowed visitors. Cards and letters have been pouring in from his many friends and well wishers.

Notables Dine Out at Sammy's

Sammy's On The Strip out in Rancho Mirage, which is becoming one of the favorite eating spots on the desert and attracting celebrities, Sammy, who was formerly with the Doll House, is a real connoisseur of the culinary arts.

Among the weekend diners were Bill Boyd and Dennis O'Keefe, and Monday evening movie stars Frank Sinatra and Peter Lawford dropped in.

Two cups of chicken or turkey stock become soup in a hurry just by adding 1 cup diced celery, 1/4 cup shredded raw carrots and 1 sliced small onion. Season to taste with salt, pepper and thyme.

First Visit to Village in Nine Years

Returning to Palm Springs for the first visit in nine years, Mr. and Mrs. Herman W. Miller of Mankato, Minnesota, Miami, Florida, and Pebble Beach, spent the past week at the Avalon hotel, visiting with friends and reacquainting themselves with local progress before going on to La Jolla.

Friday night the Millers hosted a group of friends for dinner at the Racquet Club. The group included Dr. and Mrs. E. Gushurst and Mr. and Mrs. John Kremer. Miller who is president of the Miller auto sales in Mankato, Minnesota is also head of the Kaye Yacht Pontoon Boat Company. His new venture is the "Kayot," a family playground afloat, which had its initial showing in Chicago and later New York where it was received with great enthusiasm. The Millers thought the Salton Sea would be an ideal locale for the new craft.

BASSEY WOULD MOVE UP TO LIGHTWEIGHT RANKS

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Seeking new worlds to conquer, featherweight champion Hogan Kid Bassey today stood ready to move into the lightweight division if a bout can be arranged with champion Joe Brown.

The Nigerian's desire to meet Brown was revealed by manager George Biddles as the party completed departure plans after a successful American invasion during which Bassey scored a third-round knockout Tuesday night over Ricardo Pajarito Moreno of Mexico.

"Henry Armstrong started as a featherweight and went on to hold three titles," Biddles said. "Bassey is the greatest fighting man pound-for-pound in the world today and I think he can give away 10 pounds and whip Brown."

DODGERS, BRAVES OPEN FINAL SPRING SERIES

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers held a 2-1 spring edge over the world champion Milwaukee Braves today when the teams opened a six game series that ends next Wednesday at Dallas, Texas.

Neither has created much of a splash in the South this spring but both are expected to throw top pitchers and likely opening-day lineups at each other most of the way. The Dodgers' spring mark is 12-11, including Wednesday's 4-3 loss to the Philadelphia Phillies while the Braves, idle Wednesday, stand 10-9.

Jackie Collum, a pint-sized left-hander who was hoping to hang on in a relief role, may have lost his chance to make the squad when he yielded the Phillies' winning run in the 14th inning. He was touched for an opening single by Joe Lonnett, threw wild on an attempted pick-off, intentionally walked two batters and then was

87 Tee Off Today in Masters Tournament

Venturi Favored to Take it

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UP) — The 22nd Masters golf tournament, with the younger professionals stealing the favorite's role from the old timers, was set to start today with a reduced field of 87 golfers.

The entry list was 14 less than the 101 that teed off the first day last year despite the largest foreign representation in Masters history. The most talked about—and watched—foreign players were the Japanese twosome of Torakichi Nakamura and Koichi Ono.

The Augusta National Golf course, laid out by Bobby Jones and the scene of all Masters tournaments which began in 1904, was expected to be considerably faster today than it was for practice rounds the past four days.

HEAVY RAINS last week had the course soggy and slow, but recent temperatures in the high 70s dried the greens and fairways. Daily mowings were expected to make the greens even faster.

Ken Venturi of San Francisco, the 27-year-old star picked by veteran Sam Snead and others as the favorite this year, toured the rolling, 6,850 yard layout Tuesday in a five-under-par 67. He played nine holes Wednesday but said he kept no score.

Bantam Ben Hogan, holder of the Masters tournament record of 274, which is 14 strokes better than par, tuned up by playing the back nine Wednesday. His score was a one over par 37.

PERHAPS THE BEST practice round was turned in by another "youngster," 28-year-old Dow Finsterwald of Athens, Ohio, who reported a two-under-par 70.

Mike Souchak of Durham, N.C., turned in a 71 Wednesday, as did Jackie Burke of Kiamasha Lake, N.Y., the "back door" champion of 1954 who slipped in when Venturi—then an amateur—collapsed on the last nine holes.

Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, who holds the Masters course record of 64, but never has won the tournament, had an even par 72 in practice Wednesday, the same score posted by Snead.

THE SLAMMER, playing in a threesome with amateur Gene Andrews and Count Henri de Lamaze, the French amateur champion, has three birdies and a bogey on the front nine for a two under par 34, but was two over on the back side for his 72.

Snead, who with Jimmy Demaret, is one of two three-time Masters winners, was not at all happy with his practice round play. When asked what he shot on the back nine, Sam replied disgustedly, "a million." Defending champion Doug Ford of Mahopac, N.Y., had a final tuneup of 73.

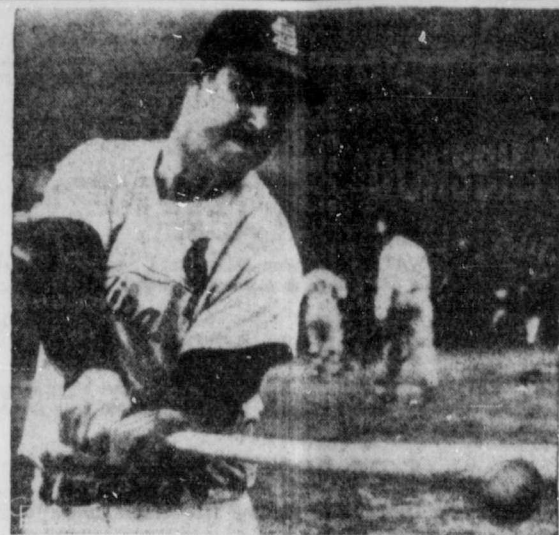

DEMARET, WHO RODE in an electric cart to conserve his legs during an 18 hole practice round, didn't care to discuss his score, but the 46-year-old veteran who entered his 16th Masters tournament today had something to say about the condition of the course.

"The course is still a little too slow for real scientific shots," said Jaunty Jim, adding "it certainly is about as slow as I've seen here."

However, he said the weather and "cris-cross" cuttings of the greens would make the course much faster for the four days of tournament play.

Top Women Golfers in O'Donnell Tourney

Response to bids for the Twenty-third Annual Palm Springs Women's Invitational Golf Championship at O'Donnell Golf Club, April 12 to 16, are coming in rapidly, according to George Howard, club pro, and most of the leading women golfers in the state and on the West Coast, will seek the awards offered in the three flights.

New Offer Made To Sub Tourney For Annual Tam

CHICAGO (UP) — An offer by five Chicago businessmen to put up $50,000—possibly $100,000—to replace the Tam O'Shanter golf tournament was in the hands of the Professional Golf Association today.

The group sent the offer to the PGA Wednesday night, and proposed to back a major tourney at the Glen Eagles Country Club near suburban Lemont, Ill.

An answer to the proposal was expected from a meeting of the PGA later today in Augusta, Ga., where the Masters golf tourney is under way.

John E. McNulty, a co-owner of the Glen Eagles, said he and the other Chicago men would back $50,000 or "possibly $100,000" depending on the reaction from PGA.

THE PROPOSAL followed by two days an announcement by George S. May that the World and All-American tournaments at Tam O'Shanter were cancelled because the PGA had demanded all entry fees from the top-money events.

Chet Posson, who handles the two Tam tourneys, said the next move was up to the PGA and that Tam O'Shanter was still "willing" to put up $210,000 in prize money.

McNulty said that if PGA turns down the offer of his group, it would start a move to hold a top tourney at Glen Eagles next year, when Chicago is host to the Pan-American games.

The proposed tourney would be a private venture for McNulty's group, which was formed at the suggestion of one of its members, James A. Hart, chairman of the Ambassador Hotels.

Cardinals, Sox Looking for Added Punch

Major Deals Said In Making of Eve Of Season's Start

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
At least one and possibly two major deals appeared ready to pop today as both the St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago White Sox sought additional strength to bolster their pennant ambitions.

General Manager Bing Devine of the Cardinals conferred Wednesday with General Manager Roy Hamey of the Philadelphia Phillies, raising a possibility that a swan involving Richie Ashburn and Joe Cunningham may be near. The Cardinals need a center-fielder of Ashburn's proven quality while the Phillies are desperate to acquire a first baseman of Cunningham's ability.

PRESIDENT Chuck Comiskey of the White Sox admitted, meanwhile, that he had talked trade with Frank Lane of the Cleveland Indians. The White Sox are believed to be bidding for a right-handed hitting outfielder—possibly Rocky Colavito—and have pitching and lefty outfield strength to spare.

There are two relatively minor deals completed. The Cardinals traded outfielder Jim King to the San Francisco Giants for catcher Ray Katt and the Detroit Tigers purchased Stan Palys, who hit .359 for Nashville in the Southern Association last season, from the Cincinnati Redlegs.

On the exhibition circuit, first baseman Bill Skowron continued to supply the big noise as he smashed a grand slam and a solo homer to knock in five runs and lead the New York Yankees to a 7-5 victory over the White Sox.

HOMERS by Gus Bell and Smokey Burgess lifted the Redlegs to a 3-2 victory over Detroit but the Tigers were gratified because 20-game winner Jim Bunning went the route for the first time this spring.

The San Francisco Giants made it 15 victories in 22 games when they beat the Baltimore Orioles, 9-8; Ike Delock and Leo Kiely combined in a three-hit effort to give the Boston Red Sox a 2-0 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates; Willie Jones singled home the winning run in the 14th inning as the Phillies downed the Los Angeles Dodgers, 4-3, and the Chicago Cubs defeated the Cleveland Indians, 8-2.

FIGHT RESULTS

ROME, Italy: Teddy Wright, 147½, Detroit, Mich., stopped Stefano Bellotti, 147½, Italy, 8.
ROME, Italy: Sergio Caprari, 139, Italy, outpointed Bobby Bell, 139, Youngstown, Ohio, 10.
MILAN, Italy: Giancarlo Garbelli, 149, Italy, outpointed Roswell, St. Louis, 149½, Trinidad, 8.
LOUISVILLE, Ky.: Rory Calhoun, 161½, White Plains, N.Y., stopped Yolande Pompey, 165½, West Indies, 8.

MORE STABLE MINORS
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UP) — George Trautman, commissioner of minor league baseball, said today "We have a chance for a good year." Trautman said the minors may be "more stable" despite a loss of 25 leagues.

Out of this World Event Next Week

Play will start next week in the Fourth Annual Out of This World golf tournament at Thunderbird Country Club with an expected entry list of about 250.

The tournament is on a member-guest basis and a full week of play and social activities is on the program.

Practice rounds are scheduled Monday and Tuesday, April 7 and 8.

On Wednesday, April 9, a best ball close-up foursome event is on the program and a Scotch foursome is slated for Thursday.

Play in the Out of This World championship tournament will start on Friday with 36 holes of medal play scheduled for two days, 18 each day. Gross and net prizes will be awarded.

Paul Reynolds, Thunderbird member and his guest, Bones Hamilton, won the event last year with a best ball 66 for the 36 holes of championship play.

Co-chairman of the tournament are Dick Meyers and Bill Worthington.

Calhoun Stops Pompey in Sixth In Video Battle

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP) — X-rays disclosed today that the neck injury which forced Yolande Pompey to quit in his nationally televised bout Wednesday night against Rory Calhoun was not serious.

Physicians at St. Joseph's Hospital, where Pompey was taken after the bout, said that X-rays showed no fracture of the bones in his neck. Pompey left the hospital after stitches were taken in a three-quarter inch cut opened on his left eyelid by Calhoun.

"It feels like something in my neck snapped," the West Indian light-heavyweight told ring physician Dr. John Ambach when the doctor clambered into his corner at the end of the fifth round. Dr. Ambach then signalled referee Don Asbury to halt the bout.

Since Pompey failed to answer the bell for the sixth round, it went into the books as a technical knockout in the sixth round. "I couldn't have gone 10 rounds," Pompey explained. "It might have hurt me worse."

Calhoun, sixth-ranking middleweight contender from White Plains, N.Y., who entered the ring an 8-5 favorite, was far ahead on the scorecards of all three ring officials for the five completed rounds.

Choices

HOT WATER HAPPY
tub after tub after tub!

Choose GAS!

Gas heats water three times faster... easily keeps ahead of the demands of automatic washing machines, dish washers and growing families. Gas costs less, too.

Choose Right Size!

Your plumber's approved sizing chart shows the proper size automatic gas water heater for your family. Don't buy an inadequate heater. It overworks—won't last as long nor serve you as well as the right size heater.

Choose Quality!

One good way to select a quality gas water heater that won't rust is to make sure it carries the Verified Long Life Seal shown here—or insist on a 10-year warranty when you order.

It's easy to buy a new automatic gas water heater. You can give your plumber all the details he needs over the telephone. You may even arrange convenient terms, credit and financing with him over the telephone.

El Mirador Plans Easter Hat Parade Sunday

El Mirador Hotel will again present its famed Easter Hat Parade at the Easter Sunday Brunch.

An idea conceived some eight years ago by the hotel's social director, Joan McManus, the hat parade for both men and women, has become bigger and more popular with each passing year.

As in the past, prominent personalities will judge the hats on such merits as most beautiful, original and zany, and prizes will be awarded winners in the various categories.

While participants parade their unusual and clever headgear, themes of the hats will be explained by Miss McManus.

Reservations for the Easter Brunch are already pouring in and this year's parade of hats promises to be bigger and better than ever.

Oysters Note

NEWCASTLE, Me. — (UP) — The Indians who inhabited Maine long before the white man came must have had a strong hankering for oysters. Experts say that ancient heaps of oyster shells lining the banks of the Damariscotta river contained an estimated five million cubic feet of shells at one time before erosion and tourists got busy.

The Desert Sun Elected To Membership in ANPA

The Palm Springs Desert Sun has been elected to membership in the American Newspapers Publishers Association, the trade association of daily newspapers. Announcement of the election by the ANPA Board of Directors was received by Publisher Ward J. Risvold.

Membership in ANPA will provide The Desert Sun a continuous flow of information designed to help produce a better newspaper. Regular bulletins dealing with the problems of daily newspaper publishing will be received by executives of The Desert Sun.

ESTABLISHED IN 1886, the ANPA has accumulated a vast storehouse of information on publishing problems, all of which is made available to member newspapers in the interest of production of better and more efficient newspapers in America.

ANPA maintains offices in New York City and in Chicago, and ANPA Research Institute owns and operates the only research laboratory in the world devoted exclusively to the problems of

Apartment Units

CHICAGO — (UP) — The United States Savings and Loan League estimated that more than 100,000 private apartment units were started in 1957. Figures for the first eight months of the year showed that starts were made on 80,000 units, 50 per cent more than in the corresponding period of 1956.

newspaper production. This laboratory is at Easton, Pa.

OTHER ANPA departments supply information about newsprint production and consumption, traffic and transportation, credit, labor and personnel relations, mechanical production and newspaper administration.

ANPA President William Dwight, publisher of the Holyoke (Mass.) Transcript-Telegram, welcomed The Desert Sun into membership with the comment that "the ANPA is happy to have your newspaper as a member because we are confident we can render service to you, and the ANPA, too, will benefit by having your newspaper in our association."

Thermal Airport Control Asked By CV Group

Application to the Thermal Airport of the ordinance which establishes airport operating areas and regulates height standards and limits, was urged this week by the Coachella Valley Industrial Committee of the chambers of commerce of the valley.

"We ask that steps be taken immediately to include the Thermal Airport in the official plan of airports of the county," said Walter R. Wright, chairman of the industrial committee.

The request was referred to the planning commission.

Moderator Presbyterian Church Discusses Events of Maundy Thursday

(EDITOR'S Note: This is another in a series of articles by prominent clergymen discussing the significance of the climatic events in the life of Jesus Christ which preceded the first Easter. Today's author is moderator of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Bloomington, Ill.)

By DR. HAROLD R. MARTIN
Written for the United Press
Today, millions of Christians in every part of the world will participate in Holy Communion just as Jesus Christ did on a Thursday evening almost two thousand years ago.

The simple rite with bread and wine will have different meanings for different Christians. But to all Christians it is an act of obedience to Jesus' command: "Do this in remembrance of Me."

HISTORICALLY, THE communion service can be dated hundreds of years before that evening in the upper room, when Jesus and his disciples shared the Last Supper.

It goes back to Moses and his command for the feast of the Passover, to commemorate each year the deliverance of the Israelites from Egypt.

SO IT WAS THAT evening in Jerusalem. In almost every home people gathered to observe the feast of the Passover. But for Jesus it was not an occasion of gaiety. He knew that his death was near. It was an occasion of such deep consequence for Him that none of his companions could then comprehend the true meaning of his words.

Jesus took two of the symbols of Passover, bread and wine, and gave them a significant new interpretation.

HE WAS CELEBRATING not just the freedom of the Israelites from domination by the Egyptians. He was heralding the victory of God over both sin and death.

Jesus knew that people in sin—and that included the whole human race—were in bondage. They were slaves of their lower selves. The mission of Jesus was the release of mankind from that bondage.

The only way all this could be changed was for life to be sacrificed. Jesus Christ made that sacrifice, taking upon Himself mankind's sins, dying on a cross at the hands of sin.

WHEN ONCE WE have surrendered our will to God's will, there is both joy and power, and love acts on the highest level.

WATER... Palm Springs Water COSTS LESS!

People still remember the days of awkward, long-handled pumps beside the kitchen sinks... and here on the desert many old-timers can recall the long hours and back-breaking labor of carrying water from the well.

Palm Springs has come a long way since those days... and your Palm Springs Water Co. can share in the credit for transforming the once arid desert into a thriving community famous the world over!

Because there is no living on the desert without water, bringing water to a community, guarding it for safe consumption, and then distributing it, is an expensive operation in any community... and this responsibility becomes even more difficult... more costly... in the desert area. But, despite this fact, your Palm Springs Water Co. rates are surprisingly low in comparison with other California communities.

And Palm Springs enjoys a wealth of pure, wholesome mountain water... through the modern facilities of Palm Springs Water Company... a privately owned Public Utility.
